

The Thomas Promise Foundation primarily need funds to purchase food in bulk for inclusion in our weekend meal bags for food insecure students, but we do accept food donations and donations of other items that we may be able to pass on to struggling families or individuals who sometimes come to us not understanding our primary mission.

The keys to meal bag donations is imperishable, individual portions and unopened. For instance, we cannot use a box of crackers, but individualized packages of 4-6 crackers we can use. Boxes we will keep in the pantry for people who come to us in need of food.

Individualized snacks are also helpful since we include snacks in our weekend meal bags

We will accept new or used children's clothing that is serviceable and unstained (no used underwear please). We accept new school supplies and individualized toiletries although none of these things go into our meal bags. We will also accept unopened toys especially during the holiday season when we have our Dinner With Santa Family Meal.

This is a general list of things we can use:

- Canned Goods (ravioli, tuna fish, Vienna sausages, etc.)
- Individually wrapped cookies and crackers
- School supplies (pencils, crayons, paper, etc.)
- Juice boxes
- Cereal Individualized) and granola bars
- Packaged snacks
- Individually Packaged Dried fruit
- Miniature toiletries (hotel-sized)
- Bottled Water
